RDG 3311. Teaching English Phonology, Orthography, and Morphology.

This course focuses on what educators need to know about the English language in order to teach phonics, spelling, and vocabulary effectively. The course is rooted in a linguistic and historical exploration of language change through usage, but focuses on applied understanding of these concepts in PK-12 reading and writing instruction. Topics include the linguistic underpinnings of decoding instruction, the structure of English orthography and its influence on spelling instruction, and the role of etymology/morphology in generative vocabulary instruction.

3 Credit Hours. 3 Lecture Contact Hours. 0 Lab Contact Hours.

Grade Mode: Standard Letter

RDG 3312. Reading Assessment and Intervention in Grades 4-8.

This course focuses on classroom reading instruction to support children who are not making expected progress. Topics include: using formal and informal assessments; basic psychometric concepts; the nature and identification of literacy difficulties, including dyslexia; diagnostic assessment to guide intervention; reading intervention for children who are not meeting developmental benchmarks; and legal requirements of special populations. Prerequisite: RDG 3311 with grade of "C" or better.
