

---

Derrick Hall Room 101

T: 512.245.2339

<http://www.txstate.edu/internationalstudies> (<http://www.txstate.edu/internationalstudies/>)

Demand for globally aware graduates with knowledge of international affairs, cultural and area studies, and language skills continues to increase. Globalization has created a need for people with cultural understanding and international perspective in business, law, diplomacy, communications, NGO's, and other fields. The Master of Arts in International Studies prepares students for rewarding careers in these fields and other opportunities.

Master of Arts (M.A.)

- Major in International Studies (Non-thesis Option) (<http://mycatalog.txstate.edu/graduate/liberal-arts/center-international-studies/ma/>)
- Major in International Studies (Thesis Option) (<http://mycatalog.txstate.edu/graduate/liberal-arts/center-international-studies/thesis-ma/>)