Students who have not earned a Bachelor's degree and wish to enroll in courses at Texas State may be considered for admission as a non-degree seeking student.

Non-degree seeking students are:

- Students who enroll in courses only at the undergraduate level without pursuing a degree at Texas State
- Planning to enroll in courses for one semester before returning to another institution (transient)

Non-degree seekers may be limited to a specific number of semester hours and must reapply for admission each semester. Those admitted under this option are not eligible for Financial Aid. For more information on admission requirements and application procedures, visit the Undergraduate Admissions (<https://www.admissions.txst.edu/future-students/other-admission-types/non-degree-seeking.html>) webpage.
